

DISCOVER OTTAWA'S HISTORY

Travel back in time as we guide you through Ottawa's oldest stone building.

Start your journey in the Commissariat, Ottawa's oldest stone building. On the first floor, walk through the construction of the Rideau Canal and explore the vault of the building. On the second floor, discover the people and events that shaped Bytown from 1826 to 1854 moving onto Queen Victoria, a quirky Victorian parlour, the Confederation and World War I on the third floor. This tour walks you through the evolution of Ottawa and the people who call it home.
